

SCVL Ratings Changes

*Everything you need to know...
Beginning Spring 2024*

Rating Expiration

To help ensure ratings are accurate and refreshed, SCVL ratings will expire after three years

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR ME?

All players must participate in a pre-season rating session at least once every three years to stay current

Not sure when your rating expires? Click here to find out...

Rating Challenges

So we can accommodate as many players as possible,
SCVL players can challenge/pre-qualify to challenge their rating only once every two seasons

WHAT IS PRE-QUALIFICATION FOR?

When your current rating does not adequately reflect your skill

It is not meant for you just to see where you stand. For honest feedback on your skills, email us below, and we'll be happy to talk with you about it

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR ME?

It is to your advantage to choose a time to challenge/pre-qualify when you are truly ready to do so.

Want feedback from your most-recent rating? Email ratings@steelcityvolleyball.org

Evaluation Notice Process Changes

Any player placed on Evaluation Notice must attend a rating session at the beginning of the next season they play

To ensure time to make arrangements to attend, players will be informed of their Evaluation Notice during the latter half of each season

I'M ON EVALUATION NOTICE. NOW WHAT?

Plan ahead to attend any upcoming pre-season rating session.
Show us your best game!

Please note: This is a change from past practice, where there was a season's grace period

Developmental Subdivision (DS) Category

Each SCVL Division will include a Developmental category
Players in this category must refresh their rating at the beginning of each season to confirm skills

For Spring 2024:
All players with a rating in the lowest 10% of each Division¹ will be considered Developmental

¹ as determined from a numerical conversion of your average rating

NEW DIVISIONAL STRUCTURE

MY RATING IS DEVELOPMENTAL. NOW WHAT?

You made it into the higher Division! Congrats!
Plan ahead to attend a pre-season rating session each season you sign up and show us your best game!

Please note: your Divisional rating could change based on each season's rating results